

10. Registration of relatives' particulars in the birth certificate (booklet)

a) Registration of children's particulars in parents' birth certificates

If parents' particulars have been completely inserted in the children's birth certificates; however due to any reasons including change of birth certificate of one of the parents, the name of children or one child has not been mentioned in their birth certificate, they (parent or children) can refer to the civil registration offices throughout the country and apply to insert the specifications on the parents' birth certificates by presenting the original birth certificate of themselves.

b) Registration of wife or husband's particulars in the others' birth certificate

If, due to any reasons, the marriage or divorce event have not been mentioned in the wife's or husband's birth certificate, the applicant is required to refer to one of the mentioned offices throughout the country, by presenting the original spouse's birth certificate and contract of marriage or divorce bill to cause to register the event in their birth certificate.

- Correction of the mistakes and remove or complete the civil status information in the birth certificate

If there is a request for filling, removal or correction of the civil status (sigil) mistakes in the birth certificates of the individual, all civil registration offices throughout the country are ready to receive it and necessary action will be taken through the office of birth certificate issuance place. To this end, the applicants should refer to the mentioned offices submitting the relevant documents directly and request to tack upon the case.